Senator Castle of Oahu Points Out Necessity for Consistent Road Scheme

By SENATOR A. L. CASTLE, of Oahu Senate bill 75, introduced by Senator Baldwin, better known as the territorial highways bill, has at last brought to the fore the question of good roads. This in brief provides for a central commission to take ance of territorial highways. A territorial highway is one which is designated as such by the legislature, or which is chosen as such by the com-

Easier Tone On HIGHWAYS BILL Shingle Determined Market Today CENTERS ACTION On Oahu Belt Road:

Senator Robert Shingle, chairman of the senate ways and means committee, declares that he intends to work night and day during the balance of the legislative session to secure the insertion of an item in the loan fund bill for the carrying on of the construction of a Oahu belt road during the next two years. It is estimated that $830,000 is the necessary amount to provide funds for the work for two years.

By the provisions of the loan fund bill, the territory will pledge its credit to secure funds for the severa! counties for the building of perma-cent highways. The counties in turn pay the interest and allow for the singing fund by deductions by the territorial treasurer from the tax money of the several counties.

Senator Shingle says that he favors a provision for the building of the Billo-Voicano road by this method, and also the constauction of the Wailuku-Hana road on similar terms.
